

Tick each statement that applies to your business.

- ☐ We understand how VPD applies to our products and supply chain.
- ☐ We've confirmed whether we need HMRC approval and, where required, have applied.
- ☐ We know where our VPD liability will arise and how much duty we'll be liable to pay.
- ☐ We've reviewed whether bonded warehousing could help manage duty payments and cash flow.
- ☐ We have a plan in place for Vaping Duty Stamps and any transitional arrangements.
- ☐ Our systems can accurately record, report and retain the information required for HMRC compliance.
- ☐ Our customs, logistics and finance teams understand their responsibilities under the new rules.
- ☐ We've reviewed the commercial impact of VPD on our pricing, margins and cash flow.

Score your readiness

How many boxes did you tick?

- ☐ 0–3: significant preparation is needed before 1 October.
- ☐ 4–6: you're on the right track, but there are still some important gaps to close.
- ☐ 7–8: your business is well prepared. Review any remaining actions before the new duty takes effect.

Need help getting ready?

Book a call with our experts today to protect your margins and keep stock moving.

langdoncustoms.com/vaping-products-duty